Legal context

Wilton Town Council has adopted this code of conduct for councillors in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

The purpose of this policy

In support of our value to respect others Wilton Town Council will not tolerate bullying or harassment by, or of, any of their employees, officials, members, contractors, volunteers, visitors to the council or members of the public from the community which we serve. The council is committed to the elimination of any form of intimidation in the workplace.

Revised 20th July 2021

Purpose

In support of our commitment to respect others, Wilton Town Council will not tolerate bullying or harassment by, or of, any of their employees, officials, members, contractors, visitors to the council or members of the public from the community which we serve. The council is committed to the elimination of any form of intimidation in the workplace. This policy reflects the spirit in which the council intends to undertake all of its business and outlines the specific procedures available to all employees to protect them from bullying and harassment. It should be read in conjunction with the council's policies on Grievance and Disciplinary handling.

The council will make this policy available to all employees as part of their induction and to all members as part of their Welcome Pack and it shall be available on the council's website. The council may also wish to share this policy with contractors, visitors, and members of the public.

Definitions

Bullying	"Bullying may be characterized as a pattern of offensive, intimidating, malicious, insulting or humiliating behaviour; an abuse of this use of power or authority which tends to undermine an individual or a group of individuals, gradually eroding their confidence and capability, which may cause them to suffer stress."
Harassment	"Harassment is unwanted conduct that violates a person's dignity or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. This policy covers, but is not limited to, harassment on the grounds of sex, marital status, sexual orientation, race, colour, nationality, ethnic origin, religion, belief, disability or age."

These definitions are derived from the ACAS guidance on the topic. Both bullying and harassment are behaviours which are unwanted by the recipient. Bullying and harassment in the workplace can lead to poor morale, low productivity and poor performance, sickness absence, lack of respect for others, turnover, damage to the council's reputation and ultimately, Employment Tribunal or other court cases and payment of unlimited compensation.

Examples of things Wilton Town Council will NOT tolerate

Examples of unacceptable behaviour are as follows; (this list is not exhaustive):

- Spreading malicious rumours or gossip,
- Insulting someone
- Using offensive, abusive, derogatory or discriminatory language
- Ridiculing or demeaning someone,
- Victimisation or discrimination based on a person's 'protected characteristics'<sup>1</sup>
- Unfair or prejudicial treatment
- Overbearing supervision, controlling behaviour or other misuse of a position of power,
- Unwelcome physical or verbal sexual advances,
- Making threats about job security,
- Deliberately undermining a competent worker by overloading work and/or unfair criticism,
- Preventing an individual's promotion or training opportunities.

Bullying and harassment may occur face-to-face, in meetings, through written communication, including e-mail, social media, by telephone or through automatic supervision methods. It may occur on or off work premises, during work hours or non-work time.

Penalties

Bullying and harassment are considered examples of serious misconduct which will be dealt with through the Disciplinary Procedure at Gross Misconduct level and may result in summary dismissal from the council for employees or through referral to the Standard Board, as a contravention of the Member's Code of Conduct which may result in penalties against the member concerned. In extreme cases, harassment can constitute a criminal offence and the council should take appropriate legal advice, sometimes available from the council's insurer, if such a matter arises.

Procedure

1. Informal approach – Anyone; employee, contractor, member, or visitor, who feels he or she is being bullied or harassed should try to resolve the problem informally, in the first instance. It may be sufficient to explain to the person(s) involved in the unwanted behaviour that their conduct is unacceptable, offensive, or causing discomfort.
2. Formal approach Employees: Where the employee feels unable to resolve the matter informally any complaint about harassment or bullying can be raised confidentially and informally, initially with the Chair of the Staffing Committee or the Mayor. It may be appropriate for the complaint to be put in writing after the initial discussion with the Councillor, as this will enable the formal Grievance Procedure to be invoked.
3. Formal approach Others: Any other party to the council, other than an employee who feels he or she is being bullied or harassed should raise their complaint with the Chair of the Staffing Committee or Mayor, where possible, or the Monitoring Officer if an informal notification to a member has been unsuccessful at eliminating the problem or where a member is directly involved in the bullying or harassment.

The complaint should then be investigated, and a hearing held to discuss the facts and recommend the way forward. A member of the public who feels s/he has been bullied or harassed by any members or officers of a council should use the council's official Complaints Procedure.

<sup>1</sup> The nine 'protected characteristics' set out in the Equality Act 2010 are age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity.

4. Grievance – Employees only - A meeting to discuss the complaint with the complainant will normally be arranged within five working days of a written complaint being received and will be held under the provisions of the council's Grievance Procedure.

This meeting will be to discuss the issues raised and a way forward for the member(s) of staff involved. Employees have a right to be accompanied by a work colleague or a trade union representative at this meeting. A full investigation of the complaint will be held by an officer as appointed by the Chair/Cllr who is handling the process. It may be appropriate for an external investigator to be involved to maintain objectivity and impartiality. The Hearing Panel will publish its recommendations following deliberation of the facts. An action plan should be made available to the complainant to demonstrate how the problem is to be resolved. It may be decided that mediation is required, and the council should contact NALC, an employer's body or ACAS to this effect, or the council may offer counselling.

The employee will have a right of appeal as established by the Employment Act 2002. At all times, the confidentiality of the grievance will be of paramount importance to maintain trust in the process hence details of the full grievance will not be shared with the full council without prior approval by the complainant. The council will commit not to victimise the complainant for raising the complaint once the appropriate grievance/disciplinary process has been concluded.

5. Disciplinary Action - Following a Grievance Hearing or investigation into allegations of bullying or harassment a full report will be made to all parties and this may result in disciplinary action being taken against the perpetrator of the alleged action/behaviour.

For an Employee found to have been bullying/harassing others this will follow the council's Disciplinary procedure, under the Employment Act 2002 provisions and would normally be treated as Gross Misconduct. For Members who the council reasonably believe have been bullying or harassing another person(s) whilst undertaking council activities the action taken must be reasonable and in some cases counselling or training in appropriate skill areas e.g. interpersonal communication, assertiveness, chairmanship etc., may be more appropriate than a penalty. The range of disciplinary sanctions available to the council, where a member has been involved in bullying/harassment include; admonishment and an undertaking not to repeat the process, removal of opportunities to further harass/bully, banning from committees of the council and representation on any outside bodies, a referral to the Standards Board (or equivalent) by the council and/or the aggrieved victim. There may also be a referral to the Police under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, in the most extreme cases. This list is not exhaustive.

6. False or malicious allegations of harassment or bullying which damage the reputation of a fellow employee/member will not be tolerated and will be dealt with as serious misconduct under the Disciplinary Procedure and/or a referral to the Standards Board.

Responsibilities

All parties to the council have a responsibility to ensure that their conduct towards others does not harass or bully or in any way demean the dignity of others. If unacceptable behaviour is observed, then each individual can challenge the perpetrator and ask them to stop.

The council undertakes to share its policy with all members and workers and request that each party signs to demonstrate acceptance of its terms. All new members and employees will be provided with a copy of this policy.

A review of the policy shall be undertaken each year (or as appropriate) and necessary amendments will be undertaken by the Clerk and reported to the full council for approval. The Council will undertake to ensure that its members and workers are trained in the processes required by this policy as deemed appropriate.
